

Concourse Federal Group Garneres Prestigious Recognitions

WASHINGTON, DC, February 06, 2019 – Concourse Federal Group marked its 10-year anniversary in business with 4 national recognitions during the 2018 calendar year. Concourse is a full-service consulting and technical advisory firm headquartered in Washington, DC. The firm delivers professional services and innovative solutions to Federal agencies and commercial clients across the United States. The accolades include a breadth of debuting prestigious rankings, as well as a national small business of the year nomination.

- VET50 - #44 - The Vet50 is sponsored by the Institute for Veterans and Military Families (Syracuse University) and recognizes the nation's 50 fastest-growing Veteran-owned businesses and the commitment they have put into their entrepreneurial dreams.
- SBA - Small Business Prime Contractor of the Year Nomination (VA VISN 20 Nomination) – The SBA recognizes those small businesses that have contributed significantly to their local communities, developed creative products or made advances with innovative technologies.
- Inc. 5000 - #645 - Inc. is an American weekly magazine covering small businesses and startups including published annual lists of the 5,000 fastest-growing privately held small companies in the U.S.
- Washington's Fast50 - #22 - The Washington Fast50 celebrates some of the fastest growing companies in the government market, ranking growing small businesses by their compound annual growth rate.

“The recognition Concourse garnered in 2018 is a direct reflection of the hard work of our dedicated team members in making Concourse a great company capable of delivering unparalleled service and attention to our clients,” said Geoffrey Perkins, President of Concourse. “Over the course of the past few years, we have been awarded contracts within our key accounts, such as U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, that have led to additional business opportunities that will continue in the coming years.”

“During this recognized period of growth, we focused on multiple internal investments and are excited to bring forward new turn-key Portfolio Management solutions to our clients in 2019 and beyond,” said Thomas Shea, Principal at Concourse. “We have positioned ourselves with an excellent Leadership Team coupled with high caliber consultants who enjoy advising our clients on how to best support their missions.”
