

Why Choose a Member of the Independent Educational Consultants Association?

The process for finding the right school, university, or program for your child is anxiety inducing and increasingly complex. Hiring a member of the Independent Educational Consultants Association (IECA) ensures that you will work with a professional with proven expertise and connects you to a network of experienced colleagues worldwide.

Independent educational consultants (IECs) who are members of IECA are fully vetted and demonstrate the highest standards in education, training, ethics, and experience.

For more than 40 years, IECA members have been respected for their expertise in the United States and around the globe. Look for the IECA logo when choosing an IEC to guide you and your child through the educational decision process.
