PREFERRED MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY NAMES 2019 SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

NEW BERLIN, NY (May 1, 2019) — Since 1992, The Preferred Mutual Foundation, the corporate-giving arm of Preferred Mutual Insurance Company, has awarded academic scholarships to local high school seniors.

The Preferred Mutual Foundation Scholarship is awarded to college-bound high school seniors that reside in Otsego, Delaware, or Chenango, New York counties and is evaluated on academic merit and responsibility to community. The Irad and Jan Ingraham / James W. Honeywell Memorial Scholarship is awarded to Unadilla Valley Central School seniors that have demonstrated a commitment to community service while upholding a strong academic standing. Each scholarship winner may use their award toward tuition, room and board, or other college-related expenses.

We are pleased to announce the first place winner of the 2019 Preferred Mutual Foundation Scholarship is Walton Central senior, Olivia Harby. We congratulate her dedication to her community and to the pursuit of knowledge. Harby will receive $3,000 each year for four years. Harby will be attending Boston College in the fall.

Josephine Hovis of Cooperstown High School was awarded with $1,500 each year for four years. Hovis plans to pursue undergraduate studies in politics and history at Davidson College and strives for a career in criminal justice law.
