FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BARRETT ASSET MANAGEMENT RECOGNIZED AGAIN AS ONE OF THE TOP REGISTERED INVESTMENT ADVISORS

Prestigious 2019 Financial Times 300 Ranking Announces Leading Independent Firms

June 27, 2019—New York, NY—Barrett Asset Management, LLC is pleased to announce that it has been named to the 2019 edition of the Financial Times (FT) 300 Top Registered Investment Advisers. The annual ranking—now in its sixth year—recognizes top independent RIA firms from across the U.S.

Peter Shriver, CFA, Chief Executive Officer, Barrett Asset Management, said, “It’s an honor for our team to have been recognized again for its work in helping clients achieve their aims. We are proud to be highlighted alongside other leading firms.”

Christina Bater, CFP®, Managing Director, Barrett Asset Management, said, “We are excited to have been included in the prestigious FT 300 again. While it is an important recognition we are all very proud of, we also look upon it as recognition of our clients, many of whom have been with us for decades and in some instances, sharing relationships with us that span generations. The work we are recognized for is done both with and for those we serve.” Mr. Shriver added, “Putting clients first is engrained in the ethos of our firm. When we receive an honor like this, our first thoughts are in appreciation of our clients.”

RIA firms that met a minimum set of criteria were then evaluated by the Financial Times on six factors: assets under management (AUM); AUM growth rate; years in existence; advanced industry credentials of the firm’s advisers; online accessibility; and compliance records. There were no fees or other considerations required of RIAs that applied for inclusion in the FT 300 industry ranking.

About The Financial Times 300

The FT 300 list is produced independently by the Financial Times in collaboration with Ignites Research, a subsidiary of the FT that provides business intelligence on the asset management industry. The final FT 300 represents an impressive cohort of elite RIA firms, as the “average” practice in 2019 list has been in existence for more than 22 years and manages approximately $4.6 billion in assets. The FT 300 Top RIAs hail from 37 states. The FT 300 is one in a series of rankings of top advisers conducted by the Financial Times, including the FT 401 (DC retirement plan advisers) and the FT 400 (broker-dealer advisers).

FT 300 disclosure

The Financial Times 300 Top Registered Investment Advisers is an independent listing produced annually by the Financial Times (June 2019). The FT 300 is based on data gathered from RIA firms, regulatory disclosures, and the FT's research. The listing reflected each practice's performance in six primary areas: assets under management, asset growth, compliance record, years in existence, credentials and online accessibility. This award does not evaluate the quality of services provided to clients and is not indicative of the practice's future performance. Neither the RIA firms nor their employees pay a fee to The Financial Times in exchange for inclusion in the FT 300.
