PRESS RELEASE

TravelHost Expands Entrepreneur Ownership Opportunities to Four Corners Area, Names Shawna Long as Publisher

Company continues to grow its network of entrepreneurs by seeking individuals with industry experience in advertising, sales, management and executive leadership.

DALLAS, TX – July 10, 2019 TravelHost is now serving travelers and advertisers in the Four Corners area with Shawna Long as Publisher. The addition of TravelHost of Four Corners is a part of an aggressive expansion into key North American destinations. As a local TravelHost owner, Shawna is responsible for all marketing, sales and content for the in-room Four Corners TravelHost magazine, and on the mobile-friendly website and various social channels.

“Shawna brings experience, local connections and a track record of success to TravelHost,” said William Schroeder, TravelHost President and CEO. With more than 20 years of experience in the Durango community, advertising and sales management, we look forward to Shawna making Four Corners a model of success connecting travelers with local businesses.”

“TravelHost reaches travelers in a variety of distribution mediums – in their rooms, online, and on their mobile phones. As Publisher of TravelHost Four Corners, I can offer local businesses access to travelers eager to discover new places to eat, shop, play and stay,” said Long. “I’m excited to bring TravelHost to Four Corners!”

“Since 1967, TravelHost has been expanding its reach by identifying those people who wish to be travel ambassadors within their local marketplace,” said Schroeder. “With a trusted, recognized brand and the latest in print and mobile marketing technology, TravelHost offers the best entrepreneurial opportunity for publishers and top sales executives to enjoy freedom, flexibility and the financial advantages of owning their own business.”
