

Eaton Square expands in San Francisco

Eaton Square is pleased to announce that we are growing our presence in the United States with the addition of M&A specialist Polygon Capital lead by Patricia E. Glovsky.

Polygon Capital was founded in 1998 and is a well-established boutique M&A firm with offices in San Francisco, California and Washington, DC. The firm focuses on sell-side and buy-side transactions in visual computing technologies, digital media and entertainment, education and training, military/defense, and information systems sectors.

Leading the firm, Patricia brings with her over 27 years of global investment banking and corporate advisory experience holding senior positions at Kidder, Peabody, Oppenheimer and Bear, Stearns. In addition to her work as an investment banker, Patti has been a strategic advisor to IBM in the area of digital media and was an early media & entertainment equity analyst.

This is an exciting development for Eaton Square as the firm continues to grow in the US. The firm now has 17 offices across the US, Canada, China & Hong Kong, Australia, New Zealand, UK, Switzerland, Singapore and Israel providing cross-border mergers and acquisitions services.

"We are very excited to welcome Patti and the Polygon Capital team. Patti brings a depth of knowledge and M&A experience that we know our US and Asia/Pacific clients will find invaluable." Reece Adnams, Eaton Square CEO.
