Former Air Force Intelligence Specialist Says “Tic Tac” UFO’s are Not Extraterrestrial

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9, 2019

During an exclusive, two-hour interview on the Hidden Truth Show with Jim Breslo released this week, Michael Turber, a former US Air Force Intelligence Specialist, claims that the “tic tac” UFO’s shown in Navy video released this year from the USS Nimitz off the coast of Southern California are not from outer space.

In the interview, Turber states:

--The video was originally leaked in December 2017. In September of this year it was confirmed by the Navy, but they claimed they did not know what the craft was. But Turber questions whether this is true.

--Turber claims to know what the aircraft seen in the video are, and that they are not extraterrestrial.

--Turber reveals information never before released and certain to send shockwaves through the UFO, U.S. military, and scientific communities. But, can he be believed?

The episode is available now on YouTube and all major podcast players.

About Hidden Truth

The “Hidden Truth Show with Jim Breslo” is a podcast/YouTube series which dives deeply into controversial and unresolved issues of our time in order to discover the “hidden truth,” irrespective of politics, religion, or political correctness. We take on subjects with no fear, seeking to expose hypocrisy, lies, hidden agendas, crimes, and conspiracies. We do this through long-form interviews with those with inside knowledge of the truth and often devote multiple episodes to the same subject. The host, former civil rights attorney Jim Breslo, utilizes his skills as a pit bull litigator to cut through the noise and get to the truth. Individual show topics touch on politics, culture, science, finance, spirituality, law, and more.
