PRESS RELEASE

Cat Extravaganza is Back in the South!

LondonCats Returns to Surrey for it's Annual International Cat Show in a New and Bigger Venue!

The LondonCats Cat Extravaganza is back with its International Show and all things Feline Exposition this time in Sandown Park in Esher, Surrey from the 10th – 12th of January! And for the first time ever the public will have the chance to meet the cats at a late afternoon and evening on the Friday of the 3 days event!

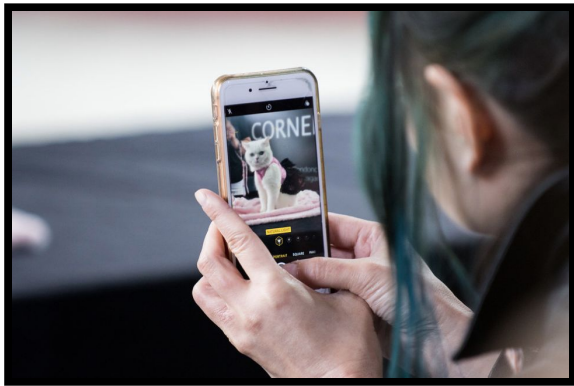

Following the huge success of the organisations cat shows around the UK in 2019 the team is back in Surrey for it's annual January Show. Ideally scheduled to make tickets the purrfect Christmas present to have something to look forward to after the festive period.

The event is associated with TICA (The International Cat Association), which sanctions hundreds of cat shows annually across the globe and in 104 countries.

TICA currently recognizes 71 breeds of cats and is the largest registry of pedigree and household pet cats in the world.

Amongst the various different breeds at our cat show, there will be some of your favourites such as the Bengal, British Short Hair, Maine Coon and Sphynx

There will also be some newer breeds like the Lykoi (werewolf cat), American Curl, Toyger and many more, all under one roof competing for the ultimate prize of Best Kitten, Best Cat, Best Alter and Best Household Pet.

This will make a purr-fect event for the whole family to have something nice to look forward to in the New Year! Visitors will have plenty of opportunities to pet and cuddle these furry friends and will be able to learn more about our intelligent companion animals and what makes cat's such amazing animals by observing one of the eight judging rings.

For those who want to give something back to their beloved four-legged friends there will be plenty of ways to spoil them with treats and gifts from a shopping village dedicated to crazy cat products. Vendors will include brands such as Bengal Cat World, Katzenworld, and Natusan. Did you know that more than 2% of the UK's non-recycled domestic waste is generated by cat litter? Natusan are making a difference by offering delivery and recollection of litter which is then composted to help grow trees in London. Speak to them to find out more at the International Cat Extravaganza!

Whether you are looking for the latest and best food & treats or the most innovative & hi-tech gadgets, you will be sure to leave happy with a little something for your "friends" at home.

You will also have the opportunity to meet Instagram celebrity cats such as Starina who will be waiting for cuddles on the Katzenworld stall.

The show will be open to the public from 4pm to 9pm on the Friday and 9am to 5pm on Saturday & Sunday. Tickets are available on the door or online, from the LondonCats website. Online prices are £18 for adults, £10 for concessions, and under 12s go free. Best of all all tickets are valid for the whole weekend.
