

Celina Tent Intern Scholarship

The Celina Tent Intern Scholarship is administered by the Tri-Star Career Compact and the Mercer County Civic Foundation. This $2000 per year scholarship is renewable for four years and is awarded to students pursuing a degree in engineering technologies or business-related fields. The recipients are selected by Celina Tent.

The family of Herb and Janice Grieshop has been a long-time supporter of the Tri-Star program. All three of their children attended Tri-Star and found it beneficial to their future success. Additionally, core members of Celina Tent's management team received education through the Tri-Star program. Preference will be given to Tri-Star students, but other qualified applicants may be considered.

Scholarship Details:

- The student must work at Celina Tent for the three (up to six) months after high school graduation to develop understanding of processes and culture. Student will be transferred to a support role preferably in their field of study during the first college semester.
- The student must attend Wright State University Lake Campus and major in engineering or a business-related field.
- The student will work at Celina Tent part-time while maintaining good attendance and work performance. Working hours will be mutually agreed upon in writing two weeks prior to beginning of the semester.
- A minimum of one scholarship will be awarded.
