Canyon Lake, CA, January 2, 2020 – Cantor's Driving School announces its expansion to Southern California, offering driving lessons in western Riverside County, western Los Angeles County, and southeastern Ventura County. With its long history of over 50,000 student drivers that have learned to drive in Pennsylvania, Florida, Nevada and Arizona, Cantor's Driving School is now providing driving lessons to teens and adults in Southern California.

Cantor's Driving School's website is <http://www.CantorsDrivingSchoolCA.com> and the phone number is 310-910-9070. Rates for driving lessons and economical packages of multiple lesson are shown at <https://www.cantorsdrivingschoolca.com/driver-training-packages/>.

In addition to the driving lessons, Cantor's Driving School offers four online driver's education courses that can be taken by any California driver. One is the online 30-hour California Driver Education course that is mandatory for prospective new drivers between the ages of 15½ and 17½. This 30-hour California DMV-licensed driver education online course is the first step in the process of earning a driver's license.

Other online driver's ed courses include:

- California Traffic School – to mask a traffic ticket and keep points off the driver's record
- California Insurance Discount – for drivers under 55 seeking lower insurance rates
- California Mature Driver Improvement – for drivers over 55 seeking lower insurance rates

All courses are completely online and can be taken on a computer or mobile device. Available 24/7 and affordably priced, the courses are very convenient - they can be stopped and started as desired. Full details are available at:
