

EATON SQUARE

EST. 2008

Eaton Square grows in Los Angeles

Eaton Square continues to grow in the US by expanding presence in Los Angeles with the addition of Aaron Meyerson, an experienced media and entertainment industry M&A executive.

Aaron is from Qualia Legacy Advisors and brings with him an outstanding track record in the media and entertainment industry and will enable Eaton Square to link entertainment sector clients across the US to opportunities in Europe and Asia Pacific. Similarly, Aaron and his team will provide an exciting opportunity for international investors looking for opportunities in the US entertainment sector.

Aaron has had executive positions at Disney, Fox, Oxygen and ViacomCBS, including President of Programming at CBS TV Distribution. His deep entertainment and digital sector experience includes providing corporate advisory services to companies and investors in film, television, digital media, music, publishing, live entertainment, research, audio/video technologies and related service businesses.

Importantly, Aaron strengthens Eaton Square's presence on the West Coast linking with the M&A teams in San Francisco and Seattle.

Aaron has a BA in economics from Berkeley and an MBA from Stanford.

Eaton Square, a cross-border M&A and capital services firm now has a total of 18 offices across the US, Canada, China & Hong Kong, Australia, New Zealand, UK, Switzerland, Singapore and Israel.

If you're interested in exploring opportunities in the US, you may reach Reece Adnams at reece.adnams@eatonsq.com or Aaron Meyerson at aaron.meyerson@eatonsq.com.