Canyon Lake, CA, January 31, 2020 – Cantor's Driving School announces that it has expanded its service area in Southern California, now offering driving lessons in North County, San Diego. The cities where Cantor's Driving School is now giving driving lessons include Oceanside, Carlsbad, Escondido, Vista, San Marcos, Bonsall, Pala, Pala Mesa, Rainbow, Fallbrook, Winterwarm, Hidden Meadows, Valley Center, and the Camp Pendleton area. The North County, San Diego office is located in Carlsbad, CA.

Cantor's Driving School's website is <http://www.CantorsDrivingSchoolCA.com> and the phone number is 310-910-9070. Rates for driving lessons and economical packages of multiple lesson are shown at <https://www.cantorsdrivingschoolca.com/driver-training-packages/>.

This expansion into the northern part of San Diego County is in addition to the areas in western Riverside County, western Los Angeles County, and southeastern Ventura County that Cantor's Driving School already serves. Details about this newly added service area can be found at: <https://www.cantorsdrivingschoolca.com/san-diego-county-california-driving-school/>.

Owner Frank Cantor comments, "Cantor's Driving School recognized quickly that the North County, San Diego area was under-served for quality driving lessons. We look forward to teaching many new drivers in this area."

In addition to the driving lessons, Cantor's Driving School offers four online driver's education courses that can be taken by any California driver. One is the online 30-hour California Driver Education course that is mandatory for prospective new drivers between the ages of 15½ and 17½. This 30-hour California DMV-licensed driver education online course is the first step in the process of earning a driver's license.

About Cantor's Driving School
