Philadelphia, PA (PRWEB) February 5, 2020 – Clear Sound, Inc. announces the launch of their new website, featuring enhanced content on their audio video installation, production, rental and equipment sales services, an expanded online rental catalog, streamlined site navigation and modernized design. The new website highlights Clear Sound’s position as a premier AV resource for event planners, educational institutions, churches, local government agencies and corporations in the Greater Philadelphia area.

An important feature of the new website is the interactive online rental catalog <https://www.clearsoundinc.com/rental-catalog/>. Clear Sound’s extensive inventory of audio, video and lighting rental equipment includes everything from mixing consoles, subwoofers, microphones, loudspeaker systems, amplifiers and monitors to projectors, switchers, display screens, televisions and lighting controllers, staging, rigging and power distribution solutions. Renting high quality and reliable equipment is critical to successful events. Knowing Clear Sound provides a one-stop shop for anyone’s needs makes it easy and cost effective.

Another crucial improvement is the new website’s streamlined navigation and modernized design. Being able to find what one needs quickly and contact Clear Sound for a quote or consultation easily enhances the user experience and helps Clear Sound retain current clients and engage more effectively with potential new clients.

"Clear Sound takes great pride in the high quality, professional and dedicated services we provide to our clients throughout the greater Philadelphia area. The website will help us do that even more effectively every single day. Please check it out and let us know how we can help you"

Chris Dietze, President
