Trevett Cristo Announces Armand D'Alfonso as Associate

Rochester, NY, April 8, 2020 - Trevett Cristo, a general practice law firm headquartered in Rochester, NY with more than 90 years of experience, is pleased to announce that Armand D'Alfonso has been hired as an Associate.

"Armand is a dedicated, client-focused attorney with a real passion for estate and business law," said Louis Cristo, President of Trevett Cristo. "His diverse work experience and strong practical knowledge make him a dynamic new attorney."

Since his admission to the New York State Bar in early 2020, D'Alfonso has assisted clients in commercial and residential real estate, corporate matters, mergers and acquisitions, and estate administration. Prior to his legal career, D'Alfonso worked in real estate and business.

D'Alfonso is a magna cum laude graduate of Le Moyne College and cum laude graduate of the University at Buffalo School of Law. For his academic efforts, Armand is the recipient of the 2015 Purcell Scholar Award, 2016 Salwa Ammar Award in Leadership, and Professor Louis DelCotto Award in Tax Law excellence.

D'Alfonso is active in the Greater Rochester community and is involved in the New York State Bar Association and Monroe County Bar Association.
