Trevett Cristo Welcomes Kelly Odorisi as Partner

Rochester, NY, June 8, 2020 - Trevett Cristo, a general practice law firm headquartered in Rochester, NY with more than 90 years of experience, announces Kelly Odorisi is joining the firm as a partner.

“We are excited to welcome Kelly Odorisi as a partner,” says Louis Cristo, President of Trevett Cristo. “She is an accomplished trust and estates attorney who brings more than twenty years of invaluable experience.”

Odorisi specializes in wills, trusts, elder law, and estate and trust administration. At Trevett Cristo she will assist clients with estate planning, elder law matters, and special needs planning.

An alumna of the John Marshall Law School, Odorisi is a member of the Monroe County Bar Association, Estate Planning Council of Rochester, and New York State Bar Association’s Trusts and Estates and Elder Law Section. She is a 2007 recipient of Rochester Business Journal’s Forty Under 40 Award, has been included on the New York Super Lawyers list from 2015 through 2019, and holds an AV® Preeminent™ rating with Martindale-Hubbell AV Peer Review.

Odorisi is a frequent lecturer for continuing legal education programs offered by the New York State Bar Association and Monroe County Bar Association. Her extensive volunteer resume includes the American Cancer Society’s advisory board, Hope Lodge’s capital campaign steering committee, Step by Step of Rochester’s board of directors, and the Committee to Revitalize Downtown East Rochester.
