Tompkins International Launches New Mobile App to Help Businesses Ensure Facility Safety & Compliance During COVID-19

SentryCheck utilizes automated checklists and task management to track and record critical data on facility sanitation and employee wellness

RALEIGH, N.C. – Tompkins International, a leading supply chain consulting and solutions firm, has announced the launch of SentryCheck, a new solution to help businesses operate safely and effectively amid the recent COVID-19 pandemic. The easily configurable mobile application can prompt users to perform time-sensitive tasks, record critical inputs, automatically send corrective action alerts and more.

“With warehouses operating around the clock to meet customer demands during the pandemic, it is more important than ever for businesses to verify that all processes and procedures are being followed to keep their facilities safe,” said Denny McKnight, CEO of Tompkins International. “By leveraging Tompkins’ 45 years of supply chain experience, SentryCheck provides businesses with the validation they need to ensure the health and safety of their employees and customers throughout COVID-19 and beyond.”

SentryCheck offers complete data transparency with cloud reporting and dashboards, allowing compliance teams to monitor all facilities from a single view. It provides automated tools to ensure all facilities comply with their company’s COVID-19 procedures, including Workplace Entry, Facility Sanitation and Remediation & Communication, as well as other customizable checklists and tasks. Additional features include:

- Hourly, daily, weekly and monthly required tasks accessible from any iOS or Android device
- Customizable task management checklists for any operational needs
- Secure cloud-based storage of all task observations, activities and audit commentary
- Corrective action alerts sent immediately via text or email
- Photo, video and audio capture with notes for accurate recordkeeping
- Consistent and complete reporting and analytics with subscriptions

In addition to the new mobile app, Tompkins International also offers free digital resources to help businesses overcome operational challenges and deliver on customer demands during COVID-19. The company’s COVID-19 Resources hub includes educational and thought leadership content that focuses on the impacts of COVID-19, successful supply chain reinvention strategies and other related topics to help businesses flourish in these uncertain times.
