CLARK & LAVEY ANNOUNCES NEW HUMAN RESOURCES PRACTICE LEADER

Merrimack, NH: Clark and Lavey Benefits Solutions, Inc. announces the retirement of their Vice President of Human Resources and Practice Leader, Armando Llorente, after many years of valued service. Armando has been an integral leader at Clark and Lavey Benefits Solutions since 2011 and has built close, meaningful relationships with several clients. His last day will be on August 7, 2020.

Clark & Lavey is also proud to introduce Jennifer Hayes as their new Human Resources Practice Leader. Jennifer brings 18 years of hands-on experience with organizations such as Enterprise Ireland assisting members in developing, designing, and growing businesses in the United States and abroad. As a certified NLP instructor, Jennifer incorporates this method of learning into both her content and delivery of trainings. Given Jennifer's proven track record in human resources, Clark and Lavey is excited to evolve their firm to continue to provide first-class service for their clients. Stacy Barrow from Marathas Barrow Weatherhead Lent LLP will continue to work with Clark & Lavey as their legal partner, and in conjunction with their Human Resources department as needed.

Paul Clark, President & CEO, and Laura Bennett, CFO, both agree that Armando announcing his retirement was sad news for Clark & Lavey, but that everyone is happy for him. "It has been a pleasure to work with Armando for his tenure with us. He has been a complete asset to our organization and to our clients fulfilling the role of practice leader. Armando has always been ready to assist with any HR needs our clients have, everything from day to day issues to providing training courses geared toward a specific client based on their company size and needs. He is leaving large shoes to fill and he will be missed."
