AGM Global Vision announced a huge partnership expansion.

Arizona, September 2020: AGM Global Vision, LLC announced cooperation with a number of large industry partners, including Sports South, LLC, Bill Hicks & Co., Ltd, Nations Best Sports buy-group, and Academy, Ltd. to offer their customers an entire assortment of AGM Global Vision products, beginning fall 2020. These partnerships will help new and existing AGM Global Vision clients get access to the best in class thermal and night vision devices.

Commenting on the announcement, Allen Harding, President at AGM Global Vision and ex-Vice President of Armasight Inc. (acquired by Flir in 2016) stated “We believe that only by developing cutting edge products that exceed client expectations we can gain the trust of our customers and of our partners. And this cooperation is the result of such trust and one more step to becoming the leader of the electro-optics industry.”

About AGM Global Vision: Based in Springerville, Arizona, USA, AGM Global Vision designs, develops, and distributes a wide range of professional-grade night vision and thermal optics that are designed with cutting-edge technology and rugged materials.
