"In addition to being a top physical therapy provider with a stellar reputation, Sue and her team have built a diverse and loyal patient-base. This is a testament to their ability to provide lasting clinical results and form deep and genuine personal connections with their patients." said Dr. Steve Windwer, founder and CEO of Bay State Physical Therapy, and President of MVPT Physical Therapy. "The alignment between our cultures and values makes this a natural fit as we seek to expand our ability to serve the New Hampshire market. We could not be more excited to have Sue and her full team join the MVPT family."

Susan Dumore, who will be continuing on as a Managing Partner stated, "My team and I are thrilled to be partnering with MVPT and the resources that it brings. I have always thought of my team and our patients as family and knowing that MVPT shares that commitment gives me great confidence in the future. Partnering with MVPT will be a great outcome for our team and patients."
