Tompkins International Names Cal Petty Vice President of Supply Chain Consulting Services

RALEIGH, N.C. – Tompkins International, a leading supply chain consulting and solutions firm, has named Cal Petty vice president of supply chain consulting services. In this role, Petty will be responsible for the sales and delivery of consulting services focused on supply chain technology systems.

Petty has over 27 years of experience helping companies improve their supply chain by leveraging proven software, technology and engineering solutions. Prior to joining Tompkins, Petty held senior management positions at several supply chain consulting firms with a focus on technology assessment, selection and implementation. Throughout his career, he has managed projects ranging from network optimization to distribution center design to ERP implementation for companies across a wide variety of industries, including retail, consumer products, high tech, industrial and electrical supply, pharmaceuticals, food & beverage and third party logistics (3PL).

“Cal comes to us with extensive supply chain experience and a strong track record of building trusted advisor relationships with clients,” said Denny McKnight, president and CEO of Tompkins International. “We are excited to have him on board and help us continue to deliver customized, agile supply chain solutions that enable our clients to meet their unique and evolving needs.”

Petty holds a Bachelor of Science in Information and Computer Science from the Georgia Institute of Technology.
