

Summit BHC Expands Presence in Virginia
With Acquisition of The Pavilion and The Farley Center

Franklin, Tenn. – January 11th, 2021– Summit BHC, a leading national provider of behavioral health and addiction treatment services, announced the acquisition of both The Pavilion and The Farley Center located in Williamsburg, Virginia

The Pavilion at Williamsburg Place is a 66-bed, inpatient psychiatric facility, with geriatric and adult beds. The Farley Center operates 70 beds for substance use detox, rehab, partial hospitalization, and outpatient services. Also, as part of the acquisition, Summit will assume ownership and operation of The Villages, a semi-private living accommodation for individuals in recovery. With this acquisition, Summit BHC now operates 24 facilities across the country.

“The Pavilion and The Farley Center are complementary additions to the Summit family as their services match up well with our strengths,” stated Brent Turner, CEO of Summit. “This is our second venture in the state of Virginia, following our opening of Safe Harbor Recovery Center in Portsmouth in 2019. We are pleased to partner with regionally-recognized programs like The Pavilion and The Farley Center, and we look forward to continuing to provide a high quality of care to our clients there.”
