Bumpboxx® to release Limited-Edition Selena MicroBoom Wearable Bluetooth Speaker honoring Selena's Legacy

Los Angeles, California (May 7, 2021) –Bumpboxx® will release their first ever collaboration on the MicroBoom Wearable Bluetooth Speaker featuring music legend, Selena. The 2021 Selena MicroBoom will be sold at bumpboxx.com

Bumpboxx® worked directly with Suzette Quintanilla, CEO of Q-Productions, Inc. to design the custom-made Selena themed MicroBoom which features a long wearable chain and specially made box. Selena fans will be able to purchase the Selena MicroBoom on Friday, May 7th, 2021 at 9:00am PST.

“It brings me great honor and joy to be working side by side with such an icon like Selena and her family. Her passion for music and the songs she sang will forever be embedded in the hearts of many.”

-Rob Owens, CEO & President of Bumpboxx®

“I am excited to be part of the Bumpboxx family and continue our partnership honoring my sister, Selena's legacy. The Selena MicroBoom packs a punch and is the perfect travel size Bluetooth speaker to stream all your music from Selena y Los Dinos and all of your favorite music artists.”

-Suzette Quintanilla, CEO & President of Q-Productions, Inc.
