- Althea McIntrye, The Best Career for Me

"If you are ready to start your own business, but don't really know what to do, I recommend you work with Jeff and his team. When I was leaving the corporate world a few years ago, his team set up my website and gave me many suggestions of what to do and in what order to do them. Jeff asked questions to help me figure out what I wanted to do specifically and how to proceed".
