

Bright Red

I'm back here again
This golden coast is my trend
So casually worn
Sunset to dawn on my skin
Mr capital grey
Paving more shade on the bay

Don't you ever wonder how anyone else feels?
I'm bright red
I'm so incensed
Corporate hunger etched in the lies
Turn me bright red
I'm so incensed

When the sunbeam is weak
And winter draws deep
Fly away
Traced on the shores
Always take more than they gave
It's fragile it's true
This homeland is blue and it's safe

Don't you ever wonder how anyone else feels?
I'm bright red
I'm so incensed
Corporate hunger etched in the lies
Turn me bright red
I'm so incensed

Long is the night
On our holy ground we are here forever
Bound together
No one can buy the harvest we bind
We are here forever bound together

The man from the city
Comes to make money
I'm bright red
I'm so incensed
It's heaven it's pretty
He's selling us out
and I'm bright red
I'm so incensed

Long is the night
On our holy ground we are here forever
Bound together

No one can buy the harvest we bind
We are here forever bound together

The man from the city
The man from the city
