CS McKee Expands Its Investment Capabilities with Three New Portfolio Managers
Paul Frank, Brad Thompson, CFA, and Clayton Wilkin, CFA, have joined CS McKee from Stadion Money Management

Chicago, IL (June 21, 2021) – CS McKee announced today that the portfolio management team of Paul Frank, Brad Thompson, CFA, and Clayton Wilkin, CFA, have joined the firm from Stadion Money Management, where they will be responsible for investing more than $750 million in alternative and asset allocation mutual fund and private client separate account strategies. These are new assets that will be moving to North Square/CS McKee.

"We are extremely excited to have these three experienced managers with proven, long-term track records join the CS McKee team," said Mark Gensheimer, President of CS McKee. "Paul, Brad and Clayton's combined experience and skill sets will significantly bolster our investment capabilities," Gensheimer added.

"We believe there is significant demand in the marketplace for alternative and multi-asset solutions, and these three experienced portfolio managers will position our organization to meet the needs of our consultant partners and instutitonal clients," said Mark Goodwin, Co-Founder and CEO of North Square Investments, CS McKee's majority owner and affiliate firm.
