

Summit BHC expands in Indiana with the opening of Anabranh Recovery Center in Terre Haute.

Franklin, Tenn. – July 15, 2021 – Summit BHC (“Summit”), a leading national provider of behavioral health and addiction treatment services, announces the opening of Anabranh Recovery Center in Terre Haute, Indiana. It is a 66-bed primary substance use disorder treatment facility serving adult men and women.

Summit brings a proven track record of expertise, compassion and quality to its continuum of care. The company’s services include alumni and family programs to help clients stay connected through the recovery process. The facility is Summit’s 24th nationally and its second in Indiana.

“We are excited to open our new facility in Terre Haute,” said Brent Turner, CEO of Summit. “The addition of Anabranh Recovery Center expands the treatment options available in the area, and we look forward to becoming part of the local community.”

Anabranh’s CEO, Dr. Charles Brooks, has 32 years of experience working in drug and alcohol treatment. Dr. Jennifer Hutchens, a Licensed Clinical Psychologist and leader in the Terre Haute treatment community, is the facility’s Director of Clinical Services.

“Our team is humbled by the warm welcome we have received,” said Brooks. “We are grateful for the opportunity to serve those in need of treatment services. We believe our team’s extensive experience and our commitment to patients will make a difference in this community.”
