Tompkins Solutions Names Randy Price Vice President of Material Handling Integration

RALEIGH, N.C. – Tompkins Solutions, a leading supply chain consulting and services firm, has named Randy Price vice president of the material handling integration division. In this role, Price will be responsible for engaging with customers on new and legacy projects and overseeing the engineering and controls teams for the division.

Price has over 30 years of experience providing material handling and logistics design and implementation services to clients in a wide variety of industries, including automotive, pharmaceutical and consumer goods, among others. Prior to joining Tompkins, Price was vice president of Hirata Corporation of America, a global industrial equipment manufacturer, where he led the sales and delivery of material handling integration and production systems solutions.

“We are thrilled to welcome Randy to the Tompkins team,” said Denny McKnight, president and CEO of Tompkins Solutions. “His wealth of experience managing projects from design to implementation will make him a valuable asset as we continue to provide our customers with end-to-end solutions that deliver immediate results and long-term success.”

Price holds a Bachelor of Science in Computer Integrated Manufacturing and Engineering from Indiana State University.
