

Thought Leadership. Collaboration. Breakthroughs.

Humana Chief Technology Officer Eric Tagliere Appointed to CTO Forum Advisory Board.

Santa Clara, California – September 7, 2021 – The CTO Forum today announced that Eric Tagliere, Chief Technology Officer of Humana Inc., has been appointed to the CTO Forum Advisory Board. The CTO Forum brings together senior technology executives, business leaders and academicians to discuss and collaborate on key technology issues and to accelerate innovation across organizations.

"We are honored to welcome Eric Tagliere and Humana to the Advisory Board," said CTO Forum Founding Chair and President Basheer Janjua. "As a highly accomplished and visionary executive, his leadership in architecting and delivering successful large-scale digital transformation initiatives will most certainly provide inspiration and great benefit to the CTO Forum community and we look forward to working closely with him."

CTO Forum hosts a series of events for its members each year, gathering the brightest minds to connect, debate and solve the big issues of our time. In 2021, through the concerted efforts of the dedicated Advisory Board, CTO Forum has introduced RETHINK DIGITAL: Designing the Digital Transformation Flywheel. The Six Series – a transformation tour de force – is led by faculty from top universities and distinguished industry leaders. Each of the integrated modules is focused on a single facet of digital transformation including customers, strategy, culture, operations, data and technology, and ultimately will deliver leaders their own customized transformation playbook.

"I am pleased to accept this appointment to the CTO Forum Advisory Board. Throughout my career, I have focused on organizational innovation and transformation, which very much aligns with the CTO Forum's Six Series as well as the overall mission. I look forward to collaborating with fellow board members who share this commitment to overall strategic innovation," Tagliere said.

In his CTO role at Humana, Tagliere is accountable for Enterprise Architecture, Infrastructure Operations and Engineering, Contact Center platforms, Associate Collaboration and Productivity, M&A Technology Integration and Enterprise Data Platforms. His team is responsible for identifying emerging technologies and integrating contemporary technology solutions to enable innovative business processes, products and services – helping Humana achieve its strategic goal of creating seamless and easy experiences to help Humana members achieve their best health.

Previously, Tagliere served as the CTO of Marriott International, where he oversaw technology strategy, enterprise architecture and application development for 7,400 Marriott properties in 132 countries. He also led innovation, driving Marriott's overhaul of mobile platforms, online experience and digital reward partnerships. Tagliere worked as the Chief Architect for Ameriprise and Vice President of Technology Services for Experian. He served on the Board of Trustees for the National Center for Children and Families, a non-profit based on Bethesda, Maryland.
