

ALEX STAVROS

MENTAL HEALTH SPEAKER

About Alex

Alex is the CEO of Embark Behavioral Health. Prior to Embark, Alex was the Founder and Managing Partner of a social investment fund focused on acquiring and leading mission-driven businesses. Prior to then, Alex was the Associate Director of Firm-Wide Operations for Cambridge Associates, the world's largest global investment advisory firm to not for profit organizations. Alex has experience in public service having worked at the Overseas Private Investment Corporation, a U.S. government agency that mobilizes private capital to help solve critical, global social and poverty challenges. Alex's childhood shaped his professional and personal aspirations. As the son of missionaries, Alex grew up in Peru living and playing alongside the troubled youth and orphans of Lima's slums. While at Stanford University, where Alex earned an MBA, he was a Rising Fellow at the Hoover Institution, a world-renowned public policy think tank.

Speaking Topics

- Happiness vs Joy
- State of child suicide, depression, anxiety
- Leadership and corporate culture
- Mental and emotional health
- Good business is doing good
- Customized talks to meet your needs.

Previous Speaking Engagements

- AFAH (International Forum on Advancements in Healthcare) at Ceasars Palace • June 18-20, 2019
- Arizona Midday at Channel 12, Arizona. • April, 2019
- Youtube Educational Videos
- National Conferences

About Embark

Embark is the country's most recognized and respected family behavioral health provider - serving preteens, teens, young adults and their families. Serving its first family 25 years ago, Embark operates 14 programs in 14 States. Embark has a complementary continuum of programs, an internationally-validated outcomes platform and the industry's highest quality of care and safety standards. Embark is comprised of four highly recognized and regarded companies, including: Calo Programs, Innerchange Programs, New Vision Wilderness Programs and Potomac Behavioral Health.