

YACHTCREATORS OFFERS $100 MILLION FINANCING

AWARD-WINNING YACHT SALES FIRM STIMULATES NEW BUILDS WITH LANDMARK PARTNERSHIP

FORT LAUDERDALE, October 29, 2021 – YachtCreators today announces a $100 million joint venture with Trinity Atlantic Capital, Ltd. (“Trinity”) to finance the construction of premium yacht builds for retail buyers starting in Q1 2022. YachtCreators is hosting owners and buyers at the Fort Lauderdale International Boat Show October 27 – 31, 2021.

YachtCreators is a full-service professional new build & brokerage firm with sales hubs in Fort Lauderdale, Aventura, and Miami Beach. The LeVen 90, their latest flagship and winner of 2020’s Best New Series, drew Trinity’s attention with its breathtaking design while moored near Trinity’s marina-side offices at Albany in Nassau, Bahamas.

Trinity is an international financial services firm with a long record financing high value luxury goods around the world, including art, fine wine, private aviation and crypto-currencies. This agreement with YachtCreators constitutes their first commitment to the international market for superyachts.

“This partnership with Trinity is exciting on many levels. It sparks new yacht and superyacht construction both in Europe and here in the USA, which has been a long-held dream of YachtCreators,” says founder, Barin Cardenas. “Further, it provides much-needed construction financing solutions to meet the growing demand of the yacht and superyacht market we’re now experiencing.”

“YachtCreators is a market leader,” said Trinity’s principal, Jim Allan. “We evaluate opportunities to finance growth around the world every day, and James Wilson and I are looking forward to spending some time at the Fort Lauderdale International Boat Show working with Barin’s team. We couldn’t wait to be a part of their trajectory.”

Mosaic Financial is advising both parties.
