Amerisure Expands into Three New States, Offering P&C Insurance through Exclusive Partners For Success® Program

Farmington Hills, Mich., November 22, 2021 — Amerisure is pleased to announce its recent business expansion into the states of Maryland, Colorado and Pennsylvania. As part of Amerisure’s Partners For Success® program, property and casualty insurance products are now offered in these states through an exclusive network of elite independent insurance agencies.

State expansion has been a key contributor to Amerisure’s success over the years. This next expansion allows Amerisure to find new agency partners and deliver its One Amerisure service to additional businesses in key market segments, such as construction, manufacturing/distribution and healthcare. Amerisure’s industry-leading Net Promoter Scores (NPS) help to create powerful partnerships that lead to mutual success for both the policyholders and agency customers.

“We are extremely pleased to add Maryland, Colorado and Pennsylvania to our operating states,” said Angela McBride, Chief Operating Officer at Amerisure. “Achieved together with our agency partners and expert employees, this expansion represents our focus on providing exceptional value to agencies and consistent high-quality service to policyholders, as well as the profitable growth of Amerisure’s business.”

Amerisure’s leading NPS scores reflect customer satisfaction across services and offerings, with results in risk management and claims more than double the carrier average. Amerisure differentiates itself in the marketplace with its unique One Amerisure approach, which ensures the delivery of superior service and value through collaboration and service coordination, responsiveness, and ownership across departments.

Organizations interested in coverage for their business through Amerisure can utilize the agent locator to find an appointed independent agency in their location.
