

Summit BHC Continues Growth with Acquisition of Seven Psychiatric Hospitals from Strategic Behavioral Healthcare

Franklin, Tenn. – January 6, 2022 – Summit BHC ("Summit"), a leading national provider of behavioral health and addiction treatment services based in Franklin, Tennessee, continues to expand its national footprint with the acquisition of seven psychiatric hospitals in six states from Strategic Behavioral Healthcare. Terms of the deal were not disclosed.

The seven hospitals are: Eagle View Behavioral Health in Bettendorf, Iowa; Peak Behavioral Health in Santa Teresa, New Mexico; Carolina Dunes Behavioral Health near Wilmington, North Carolina; Creekside Behavioral Health in Kingsport, Tennessee; Palms Behavioral Health in Harlingen, Texas; Willow Creek Behavioral Health in Green Bay, Wisconsin; and Miramont Behavioral Health near Madison, Wisconsin. These hospitals have a total of 613 inpatient psychiatric beds serving children, adolescents, adults, and seniors. In addition, they also operate several outpatient programs serving adults and adolescents.

With these facilities, Summit is expanding its presence in Iowa, Tennessee, and Texas, and entering New Mexico, North Carolina, and Wisconsin for the first time. Summit now owns and operates 31 facilities across the United States.

"We are excited to welcome these facilities and their staff members to the Summit family," said Brent Turner, CEO of Summit. "We are committed to providing these communities with the high-quality care they have come to expect, and we look forward to working closely with them."
