Amerisure Prioritizes the Path Forward with New Vice President of Innovation & Transformation

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich., January 6, 2022 — Amerisure is pleased to announce Jill Glenn has joined the organization as vice president of innovation and transformation.

In this role, Glenn will lead Amerisure's Business Process and Portfolio Management Office and Digital Innovation teams while providing leadership for innovation, portfolio and process management, and agility.

"We are pleased to welcome Jill to the information technology team at Amerisure," said Amjed Al-Zoubi, chief information officer at Amerisure. "As we move the business forward through digital transformation and an investment in new tools and technologies, Jill's proven leadership skills and direct experience with enterprise-wide systems, introducing digital products into business operations, and assuring value-based analysis of business IT initiatives makes her an invaluable addition to our team."

and transformation, Amerisure*

Prior to joining Amerisure, Glenn held multiple regional and global leadership roles, including positions at Webasto Roof Systems Americas, The Dow Chemical Company and Fiat Chrysler Automobiles (now Stellantis). During her tenure with these organizations, she managed project and program management offices; global IT application teams supporting enterprise-wide systems, and IT infrastructure organizations. Glenn has also led several organizations through the change management cycle.

Glenn earned a Bachelor of Business Administration with a major in Management Information Systems and a Master of Business Administration from Central Michigan University.
