Stuart A. Tucker Appointed to Szaferman Lakind Executive Committee

Stuart has been a member of the firm for 24 years.

Lawrenceville, NJ - Effective immediately, Stuart A. Tucker has been appointed to the Executive Committee of Szaferman, Lakind, Blumstein & Blader. Stuart, a Partner within the Personal Injury Department, has worked with the firm for 24 years and has been integral to its growth and success.

Stuart focuses his practice on personal injury litigation, business litigation and general litigation. A native of Trenton, he has deep roots in the Trenton community serving on the boards of many nonprofits including the United Way of Greater Mercer County and Every Child Valued. Stuart serves as general counsel to Trenton's Change Church and the Trenton Housing Authority.

Stuart A. Tucker

Partner

Stuart joins an Executive Committee consisting of Co-Managing Partners Barry Szaferman and Brian Paul, Founding Partner Arnold Lakind, Partner and General Counsel Bob Lytle and Partners Craig Hubert and Michael Paglione. Together, they represent all of the firm's practice areas, with a common goal of finding the best ways to serve their client base. The committee members collectively draw on decades of experience working with their own law firms and individual departments while working with clients in and out of the courtroom. From hiring the most qualified attorneys to using the latest technology, the Executive Committee's leadership works to ensure quality and cost-effective service.

“We are proud to welcome Stuart to the Executive Committee”, said Partner and Executive Committee member Craig Hubert. “I have known Stuart for 42 years, and we both were raised in Trenton, New Jersey. We have watched one another grow up as childhood friends and then as lawyers. When we met in 1979, Stuart offered me a seat next to him on the school bus. Now, I am proud to sit next to him at the Executive Committee table. Stuart’s years of experience and dedication to the firm make him a valuable asset and we look forward to the perspective Stuart will bring to the committee.”
