

Celebrity Interior Designer, Robin Baron, Collaborates with Austin Luxury Pillow Designer, Deborah Main, The Pillow Goddess™, to Launch the New UnZipped Pillow Collection

New York, NY – May 5, 2022 – Nationally-recognized interior designer, Robin Baron, announces her new collaboration with Austin-based luxury pillow designer, Deborah Main, The Pillow Goddess™. The two have teamed up to design and launch the one-of-a-kind UnZipped Pillow Collection, available exclusively at RobinBaronDesign.com. The artisanal pillow collection is proudly hand-made in the USA and available in multiple sizes and colors.

The UnZipped Pillow Collection is as unique as a decorative pillow can get. Elevating the ordinary throw pillow to new heights in home fashion, the UnZipped pillow is fun and flirty and sure to spark playful conversation. Each pillow, handcrafted in Austin, Texas, features a fully functioning exposed zipper, revealing a sneak peek pouch with a pop of contrasting color. Paired with exposed hardware, the swish of a handmade suede tassel is a design detail that shakes up home décor with a seductive and sleek look.

“Deborah and I both share a love for bold color and texture. When thinking about a new pillow collection, it made perfect sense to collaborate with the one and only Pillow Goddess™, as I love her unique creations. We’ve opened up a whole world of style with the bold UnZipped Pillow Collection, a new exclusive to the fashion-inspired home furnishings e-commerce store, RobinBaronDesign.com.”

The exciting, new UnZipped Pillow Collection is searchable by color and collection name, and available in eighteen different color combinations and three different sizes, 18, 20, and 22-inch squares. As with all of RobinBaronDesign.com products, customers will discover design tips, tricks, and advice from Robin as to how to style the UnZipped Pillow Collection with additional home décor. Customers also have access to Robin’s pro design services, available by the hour or by the room, as well as her full scope design capabilities.
