Actor Jimmy Barbarise to Play Lead Role in New TV Series “Capo Rise to Power”

TV Series “Capo Rise to Power” Directed & Produced by Ashley De Grandy.

Los Angeles, CA, May 21, 2022: Vault Video Productions has announced that the TV series Capo Rise To Power will be filmed in Miami in June. Directed by award winner Director/Producer/Writer Ashley De Grandy (Metanoia (2020), ViviR 2017), the Mafia saga's principal role of Michael Baresi is played by actor Jimmy Barbarise, a New York native best known for his recurring supporting roles on TV Shows “Finessing” and “Gravesend Season 2”. De Grandy said, “Jimmy Barbarise was born to play the role of Michael Baresi. His talent, background, and attitude prepared him for this once-in-a-lifetime principal role”.

Jimmy Barbarise is experienced and talented in both acting and screenwriting. He's appeared in a wide range of roles, from independent films to television. His work in the short film Gianna is a testament of his dedication to his craft. His most ambitious project to date, Capo: Rise to Power, shoots this summer, and there is no better actor, that I as director, would choose to play the main role of "Michael" for the series.

Producer & Director

For Barbarise, this role is a dream come true. He said, “I have always wanted to act. I used to write alternate endings to The Godfather in elementary school. Being Italian American, the role of Michael Baresi is one that I understand well. And not because I am not in the mafia! ”. He would also want to express his gratitude to Willie Demeo for casting him in Gravesend Season 2.

Capo Rise to Power will be filmed in Miami and is scheduled for release in Fall 2022.
