

“VISIONS FOR THE FUTURE”
INTERNATIONAL REMOTE VIEWING ASSOCIATION

2022 CONFERENCE SPEAKER LIST

DAMON ABRAHAM, Ph.D - FEATURED SPEAKER

Damon Abraham, PhD, is a research consultant and adjunct professor with a research background in experimental psychology focusing on emotion, emotion self-regulation, and mental representation. He has several clandestine research interests focusing on non-local consciousness (OBEs, NDEs etc.), non-local perception (remote viewing / precognition), and non-local influence (RNGs, micro & macro PK effects etc.). His interests center on the intersection of consciousness, psi, and AI as it pertains to augmented human potential and personal growth and development. He is part of the team behind the Entangled app, a mobile platform based on the Global Consciousness Project that turns user's smartphones into random event generators (REGs) and tests for group-consciousness effects. Damon has presented his research and theoretical work at several conferences including the Society for Scientific Exploration (SSE), the International Association for Near Death Studies (IANDS), and IRVA amongst others. He has been actively involved in several community groups including local chapters of IANDS and the SSE. Currently, he sits on the board of directors for Consciousness Hacking Colorado, an organization that aims to connect technologists, global-minded citizens, and contemplative practitioners with ideas, events, and projects centered around our collective human potential. His website is: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/damon-abraham>.

LEONARD (LYN) BUCHANAN - FEATURED SPEAKER

Leonard (Lyn) Buchanan is the Executive Director of Problems>Solutions>Innovations(P>S>I) which started as a small data analysis company in the Washington, D.C. area in 1992 after Lyn's retirement from the military. In late 1995, when the US government declassified their Remote Viewing project, information became public about Lyn's prior involvement with that project as one of the unit's Remote Viewers, Database Manager, Property Book Officer and as the unit's Trainer. Public demands for training applications became great, and P>S>I moved into the remote viewing field full time, bringing with it Lyn's extensive databasing capabilities.

At the present time, P>S>I holds the most complete body of data on the applications of remote viewing in real-world applications. Lyn has gone on over the past two decades to create entire generations of talented remote viewers. He recently moved his CRV classes from in-person to an online platform. He is the author of The Seventh Sense: The Secrets of Remote Viewing. He is a painter, and has appeared on hundreds of media programs spreading the word about remote viewing. His website is: www.crvviewer.com

MICHELLE FREED - CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT DIRECTOR

Michelle Freed is a graduate of the Alternative Practitioner Academy and received certification from the National Guild of Hypnotism. She completed the beginning, intermediate and advanced training programs through the International School of Clairvoyance, where she learned to integrate her intuitive gifts with her hypnosis skills. Michelle is a talented remote viewer and remote viewing instructor. Fully certified in all forms of Controlled Remote Viewing, She completed the beginning through advanced training programs through Right Hemisphere, Intuitive Specialists, APP, and received additional training from Joe McMoneagle. Michelle is a member of IRVA (International Remote Viewing Association) and along with her co-researcher Debra Lynne Katz, PhD received the Warcollier Prize in 2017. She has research related to Remote Viewing and Parapsychology published with The Journal of Psychical Research, The Parapsychology Association, and Eight Martinis Magazine. Michelle works on special remote viewing projects with Julia Mossbridge, PhD @IONS (Institute of Noetic Sciences). Michelle is in the Documentary “Third Eye Spies” and appears in an episode of “Ancient Aliens”. She is the former producer for Art Bell’s Show, “Midnight in the Desert”, and currently co-owner of the new Midnight.fm Network and producer for the Midnight Society Radio Show with Tim Weisberg. Her website is: <https://litmmedia.com>.

DALE GRAFF - KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dale Graff has degrees in Aeronautical Engineering and Physics and an extensive background in research and applications of psi phenomena. Dale became involved with remote viewing research in 1976 as the Department of Defense contract manager for RV research at the Stanford Research Institute and then eventually a director of Stargate, the military Remote Viewing program. Currently Mr. Graff presents seminars and workshops for individuals through Psi-Seminars-Initiative. His dream seminar focus is on precognition and healing potential. His published books include Tracks in the Psychic Wilderness and River Dreams. He is a present IRVA Director and Co-Director of the IRVA Research Unit. His website is: <http://dalegraff.com>.

JOE MATTO - FEATURED SPEAKER

Joseph Matto, AIA, is a multi-award-winning Architect & Designer for over 25 years. He designed over 400 custom homes, buildings & innovative energy efficient structures throughout Connecticut and New England. Joe is an intuitive and precognitive Creative Artist, a "Maker" & "Form Giver." His influences include Buckminster Fuller, Nikolas Tesla, Louis Kahn, Heinrich Engel, and Calatrava. Joe has discovered correlations of sacred geometry with many ancient and sacred buildings including the Pyramid of Giza, The Dome of the Rock, Machu Picchu and Stone-Henge. He is an expert on sacred symbols, Ancient Megalithic structures and religious iconographic depictions throughout history. He started a company called SunSpace, Inc., where he and partner Colin Healy developed modular pre-fabricated structural glazing systems for constructing passive solar sunspaces, greenhouses and solar homes. He attended Pratt Institute in New York where he completed his 5 year professional degree in architecture. Joe also holds a double degree in Industrial/Product Design and Interior Design from the Shintaro Akatsu School of Design where he served as a professor of design. Website: <https://www.tetrawave.com/> and <https://www.joemattoarchitect.com>

JEFFREY MISHLOVE, Ph.D - FEATURED SPEAKER

Jeffrey Mishlove is the host of “New Thinking Allowed”, having interviewed hundreds of leaders in the field of consciousness studies. He is the author of The Roots of Consciousness, The PK Man, & Psi Development Systems, and the only person to have earned a Ph.D in Parapsychology. He is the 1st place winner of the 2021 Bigelow Institute's essay contest for the best evidence of survival of consciousness after death. His website is: <https://www.newthinkingallowed.org>.

HAROLD (HAL) PUTHOFF, Ph.D - HONORARY FEATURED SPEAKER

Harold (Hal) Puthoff, Ph.D is President, CEO, and Chairman of the Board of EarthTech International, Inc., and Director of the Institute for Advanced Studies at Austin. Earning his Ph.D. from Stanford University in 1967 as a theoretical and experimental physicist specializing in lasers, his present research activities range from theoretical studies concerning fundamental electrodynamics, gravitation and the quantum vacuum to laboratory studies of innovative approaches to energy generation and space propulsion. With a professional background spanning decades of research at General Electric, Sperry, the National Security Agency, Stanford University, and SRI International (where he oversaw the remote viewing program) Dr. Puthoff has a publication stream in Tier-1 physics journals on electron-beam devices, lasers, quantum vacuum energy physics, general relativity models and space propulsion. He has patents issued in the laser, communications and energy fields. He most recently served on the board of to the Stars Academy and as a judge for the Bigelow Consciousness Studies (BIGS) essay contest for best evidence of survival of consciousness after death. He is the co-author of MindReach. His website is: www.earthtech.org/team.

Bill RAY

Veteran of five war-time tours in Iraq, Kuwait, and Afghanistan, Bill Ray is a retired Army major and DoD Civilian, with more than 50 years of combined Federal government service as an intelligence and counterintelligence officer, 20 of which were in Europe. He is one of five Star Gate military remote viewing program viewers trained by Hal Puthoff and Ingo Swann, the creators of remote viewing. Bill spent over three and a half years as a remote viewer with the remote viewing unit at Fort George G. Meade. For 18 months of that time he lead the unit as its commander. During 1985 to 1986 he facilitated the complex and difficult transfer of the Star Gate program from the Army Intelligence and Security Command to the Defense Intelligence Agency. He has been involved with remote viewing since the beginning of 1984, with hundreds of operational remote viewing sessions to his credit. Bill also taught controlled remote viewing (CRV) privately for several years while stationed in Europe and also since his return to the United States. Since 2002, he has served as an assistant instructor for Remote Viewing Instructional Services, when his official duties permitted. Bill has a bachelor's degree in history from the State University of New York and a master's degree in international relations from the University of Southern California.

SANDY RAY - IN PERSON CONFERENCE REGISTRATION TABLE MANAGER

Sandy Ray is a retired Addictions Counselor for the US Army. She and her husband Bill have six children. She has lived in many places across the US as well as in South America. Sandy also spent over 20 years in Europe. Sandy has been involved in Remote Viewing for over 25 years. She served as the IRVA Treasurer from 2001 to 2012 and has been behind the desk helping people register at almost every IRVA conference since 2001.

PAUL H. SMITH, Ph.D - HONORARY FEATURED SPEAKER

Paul H. Smith is a retired Major in the United States Army who served for seven years in the U.S. government's RV program at Fort Meade, Maryland. During 1984, he became one of only a handful of government personnel to be personally trained in CRV by Ingo Swann. Paul was the primary author of the program's CRV training manual and served as a theory instructor for new CRV trainees, as well as recruiting officer, unit security officer, and unit historian. He is credited with over a thousand ...

ANGELA THOMPSON SMITH, Ph.D - HONORARY FEATURED SPEAKER

Originally trained in the U.K. as a registered nurse and social worker, Dr. Angela Thompson Smith worked in medical research. She was eventually hired by the Princeton Engineering Anomalies Research (PEAR) Laboratory and served for five years as a member of the staff, participating in almost every part of the Lab's functions. In the mid-1990s she trained in CRV with Paul H. Smith and Lyn Buchanan, and was one of the Founders of IRVA. Since then she has been training others and consulting through her Mindwise Consulting Company, and writing. Her many books include Seer, Tactical Remote Viewing, and Scribe. Angela Thompson Smith is a founding member and past president of IRVA. Her website is: <https://mindwiseconsulting.com/about>.

DICK ALLGIRE - FEATURED SPEAKER, Special Online Conference

Dick Allgire is one of the foremost remote viewers in the world today. Allgire spent a long and distinguished career as an award-winning television news journalist from 1974 -2012. He was an anchorman, reporter and producer at KITV, the ABC news affiliate in Honolulu, Hawaii. In 1997, Allgire became fascinated with remote viewing, a military intelligence tool that was released into the public domain in the late 1990's. Allgire met and studied with top experts in the field, and trained extensively for nearly two decades with a retired member of a US Army Special Forces Intelligence Team. Remote viewing is an adaptation of a natural, human communication skill that allows individuals to open a communication pathway with their own subconscious, which has access to incredible and virtually unlimited information within a greater consciousness field. Allgire's remote viewing work has been well documented in published sessions, public and private projects, scientific peer-review studies as well as online presentations. He has been a member and has served on the the board of directors of several of the leading non-profit remote viewing organizations internationally. Dick Allgire is the most published remote viewer in the world. Dick Allgire is part of the CryptoViewing team. The website is: <https://cryptoviewing.com>.

STEPHAN A. SCHWARTZ - HONORARY FEATURED SPEAKER, Spec. Online Conference

Stephan A. Schwartz is a Distinguished Associated Scholar for The California Institute for Human Science, Consulting Faculty of Saybrook University, and a BIAL Foundation Fellow. He is an award-winning author of both fiction and non-fiction, columnist for the journal Explore, and editor of the daily web publication Schwartzreport.net in both of which he covers trends that are affecting the future. He also writes regularly for The Huffington Post. His other academic and research appointments include: Senior Samueli Fellow for Brain, Mind and Healing of the Samueli Institute; founder and Research Director of the Mobius laboratory; Director of Research of the Rhine Research Center; and Senior Fellow of The Philosophical Research Society. Government appointments include: Special Assistant for Research and Analysis to the Chief of Naval Operations, consultant to the Oceanographer of the Navy. He has also been editorial staff member of National Geographic, Associate Editor of Sea Power. And staff reporter and feature writer for The Daily Press and The Times Herald. For 40 years he has been studying the nature of consciousness, particularly that aspect independent of space and time. Schwartz is part of the small group that founded modern Remote Viewing research, and is the principal researcher studying the use of Remote Viewing in archaeology. Using Remote Viewing he discovered Cleopatra's Palace, Marc Antony's Timonium, ruins of the Lighthouse of Pharos, and sunken ships along the California coast, and in the Bahamas. He also uses remote viewing to examine the future. Since 1978, he has been getting people to remote view the year 2050, and out of that has come a complex trend analysis. His submarine experiment, Deep Quest, using Remote Viewing helped determine that nonlocal consciousness is not an electromagnetic phenomenon. Other areas of experimental study include research into creativity, meditation, and Therapeutic Intent/Healing. He is the author of more than 130 technical reports and papers. In addition to his experimental studies he has written numerous magazine articles for Smithsonian, OMNI, American History, American Heritage, The Washington Post, The New York Times, as well as other magazines and newspapers. He is the recipient of the Parapsychological Association Outstanding Contribution Award, OOOM Magazine (Germany) 100 Most Inspiring People in the World award, and the 2018 Albert Nelson Marquis Award for Outstanding Contributions. He has produced and written a number television documentaries, including "Psychic Detectives ABC", "Psychic Sea Hunt NBC", the series "Report from the Unknown", "MCA/Universal", "It's A Small World USA", and has written four nonfiction books: The Secret Vaults of Time, The Alexandria Project, Mind Rover, Opening to the Infinite, and his latest, The 8 Laws of Change, which is the winner of the 2016 Nautilus Book Award for Social Change. He has also written three novels, Awakening – A Novel of Aliens and Consciousness, winner of the "Book Excellence Award for Literary Excellence for The Vision – A Novel of Time and Consciousness, 2018, and The Amish Girl – A Novel of Death and Consciousness, 2019. He is also one of the original founding members of IRVA and a past president. His website is: <https://stephanaschwartz.com>.

TOM ATWATER, Ph.D - FEATURED SPEAKER

Tom has been doing Associative Remote Viewing since 2006 for horse racing, sports and FOREX trading. He received RV training from Pru Calabrese, Marty Rosenblatt, Skip Atwater, Julia Mossbridge and John Vivanco, but mostly learned on his own how to access his intuition in this way. Tom prepares for new experiences in applying intuitive methods for financial gain by taking time to clearly state his intentions, convince himself that he is good at what he does again, and relaxing and having fun with it all. In addition to horse racing, Tom had a winning track record in FOREX and sports predictions for the ARV-based Applied Precognition Project (which he co-founded but has since departed) and in some other FOREX groups. While at the University of Minnesota earning a Ph.D. in physics, Tom was published in peer-reviewed journals. He is currently working on other psi research projects for publication.

ELLY FLIPPEN - FEATURED SPEAKER

Elly Flippen is Ingo Swann's niece and is the CFO and Director of Human Resources for CARITAS, a Richmond, Virginia based homeless shelter and peer-led addiction recovery program. She is a CPA, and holds an MBA from Columbia University and a BA from Vassar College. She lived with Ingo three times during her life, (four if you count when Ingo would stay with her family while working at SRI) and served as his assistant, special events planner, research assistant, telephone screener, fax machine, fixer, transcriber, and sous-chef. Today, she is responsible for Ingo's Twitter account and website, and managing his publications. Ingo Swann's website is: www.ingoswann.com

PATTY GALLAGHER - FEATURED SPEAKER

Patty Gallagher holds a master's degree in Social Work from the University of Pittsburgh and has worked in clinical settings with both outpatient and hospitalized developmentally disabled adults. She later turned to an art career and was trained at Pittsburgh Filmmakers. She established Signal Line Remote Viewers in 2000, and publishes an online RV education page and monitors an online weekly target practice group. She was featured in Eight Martini's Magazine Vol. 14 "Trainers". She is currently serving on the IRVA board of directors and running various social media outlets. Her recent areas of study include the connection between remote viewing and remote influencing and utilizing remote viewing for psychological profiling. She will be leading conference attendees in an RV session of a famous person as part of her presentation. Her website is: <https://www.facebook.com/SignalLineRemoteViewers>

JON KNOWLES - FEATURED SPEAKER

Jon Knowles has a B.A. in philosophy from Harvard University and an M.A. in English from U.C. Berkeley. He is co-author of Associative Remote Viewing: The Art & Science of Predicting Outcomes for Financials, Sports, Elections and the Lottery, and author of Remote Viewing from the Ground Up (2017) and numerous articles about remote viewing published in Eight Martinis magazine. He has been active in the remote viewing community for 20 years. He was a Training Coordinator and viewer with Trans Dimensional Systems (2000-2003) one of the most successful private RV Companies for a time, a project manager and administrator with the Aurora RV Group (2005-2008); and a group manager, viewer and membership coordinator in the Applied Precognition Project (2010-2016). Jon is also a retired teacher, medical transcriptionist, developer of the ABCZ typing abbreviation system, and a former political activist. His website is: <https://www.jonknowles8.com>.

THOMAS (TOM) McNEAR - FEATURED SPEAKER

Thomas (Tom) McNear, Lieutenant Colonel, U.S. Army (Retired) was the first member of the Army Stargate program to be personally trained in Coordinate Remote Viewing (CRV) by Ingo Swann and the only member Swann trained through Stage VII; he was the “proof of principle guinea pig.” Near the end of Tom’s training, he and Swann discovered Stage VII (Phonetics). Using phonetics, Tom named many sites by name. Paul H. Smith wrote: “Tom’s results were not just impressive. Some could even be considered spectacular.” In 1985 Tom wrote the first CRV manual, Coordinate Remote Viewing Stages I-VI and Beyond, based on his training with Ingo Swann. This manual became the basis for the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) manual published a year later. Ingo Swann frequently described Tom as his best student ever. Author Jim Schnabel, in his book Remote Viewers: The Secret History of America’s Psychic Spies, stated that “Swann considered his true protégé to be Tom (McNear) ...the formal prototype for the CRV-trained military remote viewer, the best that could be achieved.” Author Jim Marrs, in his book PSI Spies, quoted Ingo Swann as saying, Tom was “the first to finish all seven stages. He was better than me.” Tom was a member of Ingo Swann’s five-person team that on 15 June 1984 remote viewed the planet Mars. Swann included many details from this team effort in the posthumously published Penetration Special Edition Updated. In this edition, Swann stated, “Psychic D (McNear) made the lengthiest study of this monumental structure...” McNear wrote the afterword for Penetration Special Edition Updated. After serving in the Army’s remote viewing program from 1981 to 1985, Tom continued a successful career in counterintelligence and counterespionage. He retired from uniformed service in 1997 and continued to serve as a civilian intelligence officer until 2019 culminating in 45 years of service. Tom has a Master’s Degree in Counseling Psychology from Saint Mary's University in San Antonio, Texas. He lives in Seaford, Virginia with his wife of 47 years, Faye VanDyke McNear.

JULIA MOSSBRIDGE, Ph.D - FEATURED SPEAKER

Julia Mossbridge is an affiliate professor in the Dept. of Biophysics and Physics at the University of San Diego, a fellow at the Institute of Noetic Sciences, and the co-founder and executive director of the nonprofit TILT: The Institute for Love and Time, which currently receives funding from the Bial Foundation and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. She is the co-author of Transcendent Mind: Rethinking the science of consciousness (2017) and the Premonition Code, Inventor of Choice Compass, a physiologically based decision-making app, and was the project lead for and creator of the Loving AI project with Hanson Robotics' humanoid robot, Sophia. She completed her Ph.D. in Communication Sciences and Disorders and her postdoc in Psychology at Northwestern University. She is a remote viewer, RV trainer and viewing tasker/team leader. She is the developer of Operational Precognitive Remote Viewing (OPRV), and has been graciously donating her time to IRVA's new IRVA Ed program by facilitating a 6-month long OPRV program. Julia's website is: <https://www.mossbridgeinstitute.com>.

MARTY ROSENBLATT - FEATURED SPEAKER

Marty Rosenblatt has a B.A. in Physics from UCLA (1964) and a M.S. in Physics from UCLA in 1966. He began his technical career in 1963 working for a computational physics company called Shock Hydrodynamics, Inc. He left, with three other individuals, to form California Research and Technology, Inc. in 1972. He was a founder and VP of California Research & Technology, and VP of the Titan Research and Technology subsidiary of Titan Corporation. He managed a group of 20 scientists who developed and applied sophisticated computer programs for analyzing high-energy problems of interest to the Dept. of Defense and NASA, e.g. hypervelocity impact and nuclear weapons effects. He was a founder, CEO and senior staff scientist of PhysiComp Corporation (1994) and its internet subsidiary called EMANATE. Marty is the writer/editor of the online magazine, "Connections Through Time", and Marty is presently President of the Applied Precognition Project (APP) and its non-profit affiliate APPI. His website is: www.appliedprecog.com

RUSSELL TARG - HONORARY FEATURED SPEAKER

Russell Targ is a founding IRVA Director and past president. He is Producer/Star of Third Eye Spies, a compelling and popular remote viewing documentary. He is a physicist and a pioneer in the development of the laser and laser applications, and a co-founder of the Stanford Research Institute (SRI) investigation of psychic abilities in the 1970s and 1980s. Targ is the author or co-author of nine books dealing with the scientific investigation of psychic abilities and Buddhist approaches to the transformation of consciousness. He is the developer of the popular ESP

Trainer APP. <https://espresearch.com/esp-trainer-for-the-iphone/stargate-esp-trainer/> His website is: <http://espresearch.com>.

DEBRA LYNNE KATZ, Ph.D. - HOST / IRVA President

Debra Lynne Katz (IRVA President; Co-Director of the IRVA Research Unit) holds a Ph.D. in Psychology and a Master's Degree in Social Work. She is the founder and Director of the International School of Clairvoyance. She is the author of the landmark books: The Complete Clairvoyant: A Trilogy; You Are Psychic: The Art of Clairvoyant Reading and Healing; Extraordinary Psychic: Proven Techniques to Master Your Natural Abilities; Freeing the Genie Within, and Associative Remote Viewing: The Art & Science of Predicting Outcomes for Sports, Financials, Elections, and the Lottery. Debra is an accomplished remote viewer, clairvoyant, medium, energy healer, and a researcher in parapsychology. She's a former Federal Probation Officer and TV show host. Her website is www.debrakatz.com and her research articles can be found here: <https://www.irva.org/library/bibliography>.

SANDRA HILLEARD - FEATURED SPEAKER, Special Online Conference

Sandra Hilleard is a Professional Remote Viewer and Remote Viewing Trainer. Trained by David Morehouse in CRV and ERV in 2009, She previously worked as commissioned Artist in the Netherlands and some of her works have been sold at exhibitions. Worked in Aviation Security where she received a commendation for her work in Security and Aviation Security Training. She holds qualifications in Security, Investigations, and studied Forensic Facial Reconstruction via the University of Sheffield, UK. She holds a diploma in Counseling & Hypnotherapy and additional qualifications in Psychology. As a Remote Viewing consultant, she has provided information to several law enforcement agencies in Europe and the USA on missing persons and criminal cases. She is known for her ability to sketch persons of interest with enough detail for investigators and the public to recognize the person depicted in the composite sketch. Sandra uses a combination of her security and investigation background and interest in Forensic Art to complement her Remote Viewing skills. One of the most prominent cases she worked on was identifying a person of interest in the disappearance of De Moines, Iowa resident, Mollie Tibbetts. That person was arrested within 48 hours after the report Remote Viewing report was sent from Perth, Australia. The sketch was confirmed to be a "dead-ringer" of the person responsible for Mollie's disappearance. Her website is: www.sandrahilleard.com,

Edward Riordan

Edward Riordan has created hundreds of hours of video content in which he films himself demonstrating live remote viewing sessions. Along with examples of long form remote viewing, he has also created an extensive volume of exploratory remote viewing work focusing on the specific workings of the process of obtaining nonlocal perceptions (remote viewing). These explorations include isolating recognizable qualities of perceptions as well as detecting specific areas of the brain from which these perceptions are being processed. He is considered to be one of the most talented and active remote viewers, fearless in his willingness to tackle any topic. He began remote viewing in 1999 with a system that was an off shoot of CRV. Edward's free YouTube page is: <https://www.youtube.com/user/erviewer>
Edward is part of the CryptoViewing team. The website is: <https://cryptoviewing.com>.

MICHAEL FERRIER - FEATURED SPEAKER, Special Online Conference

Michael Ferrier has a B.S. in computer science and art from Providence College as well as an ScM in cognitive neuroscience from Brown University. His background in computer game development includes working with Turbine Games on one of the first massively multiplayer online games, Asheron's Call. Michael is the creator of RV Tournament (<https://rvtournament.com/>), an associative remote viewing app focused on research that offers players an opportunity to learn and practice ARV in a spirit of community and friendly competition.

IRVA Conference Manager CONFERENCE MANAGERS, IRVA

The Conference Manager for the In-Person event is Debra Lynne Katz, Ph.D. (IRVA President). The Manager for the Virtual (Online) Conference is Lily Efflorescence. You can reach us at dkatz@irva.org, or contact@irva.org.
