About Little Toad Creek Brewery & Distillery

Originally co-founded by Dave and Teresa Dahl-Bredine in 2012 as a remote Inn and Tavern in Lake Roberts, NM, surrounded by the Gila Wilderness, Little Toad Creek derived its name from Sapillo Creek that ran along the property. The founders quickly found that the best part of this business was people coming from far and near to taste their brews. Dave and Teresa followed the excitement and their own passion to put all their focus into crafting beer and spirits. Coming down the mountain, so to speak, the owners founded their current location in Silver City, NM, in December of 2013 and opened a second location in downtown Las Cruces in 2018. In 2016, Dave and Teresa restored the 1940s Silver City Liquor Co. warehouse to accommodate the company's new 15 BBL brewhouse and 300-gallon still. Now, this state-of-the-art brewing and distilling operation is reviving a history-rich part of downtown Silver City along San Vicente Creek. Patrons are invited to visit and join Little Toad Creek Brewery & Distillery for a tasty beverage in Silver City or Las Cruces... and to stay tuned for news of the brand's third location, coming soon in Deming, NM!
