The Besen Group Announces Limitless Mobile as the Official Sponsor of Private 5G Seminar at MWC Las Vegas 2022

Washington, D.C., August 29, 2022 (PRWEB) -- The Besen Group, an international mobile data industry management consulting practice headquartered in the Washington DC area, with representatives in Paris and Tokyo, announced today that Limitless Mobile will be one of the official sponsors of private 5G seminar on Wednesday September 28th from 2pm – 5pm at MWC Las Vegas 2022.

MWC Las Vegas 2022, in partnership with CTIA, is the GSMA's flagship event in North America showcasing the hottest trends in connectivity and mobile innovation.

Limitless Mobile is a specialist wireless carrier enabling technically advanced wireless propositions, both in the US as well as internationally, by providing enterprise and wholesale customers with access to wireless carrier assets and capabilities as well as specialist wireless expertise and experience.

Limitless Mobile is currently managing turnkey private wireless networks for enterprise customers both in the US as well as abroad.

"We are honored to have Limitless Mobile as our sponsor for our private 5G seminar at MWC Las Vegas 2022. Our seminar attendees will be interested to hear how Limitless Mobile enables roaming between private 5G networks and public 5G networks and flexibility to address custom needs of enterprises," said Alex Besen, Founder and CEO of The Besen Group LLC.

"Limitless Mobile's wireless carrier assets and capabilities as well as our team's deep wireless expertise and experience are already being leveraged by many private wireless networks to reduce Capex, Opex, risks and time-to-market, but more public dialogue and education of the opportunities and options available is needed and we're excited to be part of The Besen Group's effort to deliver another quality event for industry education and dialogue" said Atte Miettinen, President and CEO of Limitless Mobile.
