WEBIMAX CELEBRATES ITS 14TH ANNIVERSARY
Celebrating the Past While Looking to the Future

Ocean City, NJ. Aug. 25 – This week, WebiMax celebrated another year as a leading online marketing company.

Since its inception in 2008, WebiMax has accomplished many great things in the industry along the way. WebiMax provides its clients with results-driven services like reputation management, search engine optimization, pay-per-click marketing, public relations, social media marketing, local marketing, lead generation, and web design. These award-winning marketing services have not gone unnoticed. WebiMax has been named as one of the Inc. 500 Fastest Growing Companies and one of Forbes Most Promising Companies.

Founder and CEO, Ken Wisnefski said, “Through it all, the two biggest factors towards our success have been the ability to have such an amazing team of talented people working here at WebiMax and our desire to keep treating the business like a start-up by always trying to evolve and grow.” The WebiMax team brings years of digital marketing experience providing proven results to help their clients succeed online.

With so much to celebrate behind them, WebiMax continues to look to the future. As one of the top marketing agencies in America, WebiMax knows what it takes to be the best. Using an evolving collection of proven services and the same online marketing tactics that built their success, WebiMax will continue to help businesses bring their brands to the forefront of their industry while expanding their operations Internationally.
