Tompkins Solutions Receives Top Integrator Partner Award from Wynright Corporation

RALEIGH, N.C. – Tompkins Solutions, a leading supply chain consulting and material handling integration firm, today announced that it has been named a top integrator partner by Wynright Corporation, a Daifuku group company. Now in its 23rd year, the annual award recognizes the top integrators with the highest sales volume of Wynright’s intelligent material handling systems.

“We are honored to be recognized as a top integrator by Wynright,” said Tony Del Cid, director of applications engineering at Tompkins Solutions. “Wynright helps us achieve our goal of providing superior automated material handling solutions that enable our clients to optimize their warehouse operations and meet their long-term distribution needs.”

“It’s an honor to work with Tony and the entire Tompkins team,” Troy Carter, VP of Integrator Sales for Wynright, said during the 2022 Annual Assembly. “Tompkins brings a new level of success with them on every project, and we look forward to working together to supply their clients with quality automated solutions.”

This year’s winners were honored at Wynright’s Annual Assembly and Awards Banquet at the Oak Brook Hills Resort in Oak Brook, Ill. In addition to the awards ceremony, the Annual Assembly included business meetings for the top partners and Wynright’s management team to exchange valuable ideas, learn about advancements in manufacturing and discuss new product releases and engineering updates.
