Mighty Auto Parts Promotes Chris Adams to Chief Revenue Officer

Peachtree Corners, GA – December 9, 2022 – Mighty Distributing System announces the promotion of Chris Adams to Chief Revenue Officer.

In January 2020, Chris joined Mighty as Vice President, Franchise Development, and spent time traveling to learn the Mighty System. During a global pandemic, Chris not only met, but exceeded, all franchise development goals, bringing on strong partners for the Mighty System. Chris was then promoted to Vice President, Franchise Development & Operations to help manage our franchise operational support. As Chief Revenue Officer, Chris will also assume responsibility for Mighty's Sales Department.

Prior to joining Mighty, Chris spent sixteen years at GreatAmerica Financial Services Corporation, which provides equipment financing to the automotive, healthcare, office equipment, construction, and communication industries. GreatAmerica is the largest independently owned small ticket financing company in the country. Chris started as an Account Manager, Retail Group in 2003 working with companies like Ace Hardware, Epicor, Midas, Meineke, MATCO Tools, and Federated Auto Parts. Chris did an excellent job and was quickly promoted. He became National Account Manager in 2004, Director, Business Development in 2008, Vice President, Sales & Marketing, Healthcare Group in 2010, and then Vice President and General Manager, Healthcare Group in 2012. Chris then served as Vice President, Business Development, HealthCare Group before joining the Mighty team.

Josh D'Agostino, Mighty's President & CEO stated, "Chris is a creative, goal focused, quietly aggressive family man that's ready to take on more responsibility as Mighty grows into the future. He is an outstanding asset to the Company and is a natural fit for his leadership role."
