

PetPartners Expands Pet Insurance Offering to Thousands of Employers Through Selerix

PetPartners Seamlessly Offers Employers the New Standard in Group Pet Insurance

RALEIGH, NC (PRWEB) DECEMBER 21, 2022

PetPartners Inc. has teamed up with Selerix to offer its true group pet insurance benefit on their industry-leading benefits administration platform. Selerix is trusted by employers and brokers to facilitate benefits administration and enrollment for core and voluntary insurance products. This relationship makes PetPartners offering accessible to an additional 11 million employees and nearly 20,000 employers, advancing PetPartners vision to meet pet parents needs while supporting the broker and employer community with a product that is easy to administer and coincides with core benefit offerings.

Pets continue to be top of mind for employees, and employers continue to seek out additional voluntary benefits to remain competitive with current and potential employees. PetPartners designed its group pet insurance offering with employers and their employees in mind. A simplified enrollment experience and streamlined benefits administration makes it easy for employers to implement and employers have ease of administration they already know and enjoy with Selerix. In addition to enrolling in pet insurance, employees will have access to services like vet helpline, medication discounts, payroll deduction, and employee pricing.

“An estimated 23 million pets were added to US households since March 2020* and play an important part in our lives – increasing our physical and mental health, provides a sense of purpose and connection. Employers are recognizing the importance of providing pet benefits and reaping the benefits too – with employees in turn being more engaged, productive and more likely to stay at the company,” said Nichole Toscano, VP of Business Development at PetPartners. “PetPartners values the human-animal bond and is excited to partner with Selerix to provide pet insurance to more employers, in turn helping pet parents to provide the care their four-legged loved ones need.”

An industry-first, PetPartners aligns with employers' core benefits, mirroring their eligibility rules, waiting periods, Open Enrollment, and annual policy renewal, making enrollment and billing seamless. Employers who add PetPartners to their benefits offering through Selerix can:

- Provide a uniform rate for cats and dogs, regardless of age or breed.
- Customize the offering to meet their unique employee population, including wellness
- Offer employees prior coverage credit toward coverage for Pre-Existing Conditions.**
- Can choose unique features like diminishing deductible, alternative care, behavioral, rehabilitation and more.
