

Cooler Master's 2022 Case Mod World Series Winners Stun with Innovative and Artful PC Designs

Global Competition Recognizes Exceptional Talent and Awards $22,500 in Prizes, Including Bonus for Sustainable Design Efforts

Taipei, Taiwan – Cooler Master, the global frontrunner in PC components and peripherals, proudly reveals the triumphant entries of the Case Mod World Series 2022. This annual contest, which began in 2009, continues to captivate the imagination with trailblazing custom PC creations from artists across the globe.

This year's winner of the Best Tower Mod category is Timeplay who wowed the judges with a breathtaking Cosmos C700M mod that redefined the classic Full Tower case in an ITX form factor. In the Best Scratch Build category, Keir Graham took home the top honors with his PowerCore build—a remarkable custom liquid-cooled system that showcased both intricate detail and ingenious design.

Cooler Master rewarded winners with an unprecedented $22,500 prize pool distributed among six categories. As part of their commitment to sustainability, the brand also offered an additional $5,000 prize for the best use of reusable or biodegradable materials in any category.

Best Scratch Build – Power Core by Keir Graham, United Kingdom
