Niall Ferguson, Milbank Family Senior Fellow at the Hoover Institution, Joins the Group of Thirty

WASHINGTON—June 15, 2023: The Group of Thirty (G30) announced today that Dr. Niall Ferguson has joined the Group’s membership. He brings to the Group his respected and original perspectives on global economic and financial history, as reflected in his widely-read books, articles, lectures, and debates. Dr. Ferguson is the Milbank Family Senior Fellow at the Hoover Institution, Stanford University, and a senior faculty fellow of the Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs at Harvard.

The Group of Thirty, founded in 1978, is an independent global body comprised of economic and financial leaders from the public and private sectors and academia. It aims to deepen understanding of economic and financial issues, and of the international repercussions of decisions taken in the public and private sectors. Members participate in the Group in their personal capacities, not on behalf of any organization, public or private, to which they may be affiliated.

Tharman Shanmugaratnam, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, said: “We are delighted to welcome Niall Ferguson as a member of the Group of Thirty. His deep engagement in the economic and financial challenges of the times, and the historical lens that he brings, will add significantly to the deliberations of the Group in the years ahead.”

Mark Carney, Chair of the G30, said: “We look forward to Niall’s engagement in the Group’s discussions and our work on key issues facing the international economy. I am pleased to welcome Niall, and I look forward to his counsel and insights in many areas of our collective focus.”

Niall Ferguson said: “I thank the Group of Thirty for this opportunity and I am honored to join its distinguished membership. I look forward to supporting the Group’s mission and working with G30 members on some of the most important issues of the day.”
