ONE PIECE DAY '23 TO STREAM ON YOUTUBE WITH FIRST-EVER ENGLISH INTERPRETATION FOR INTERNATIONAL FANS

Tune into the official YouTube page on Friday, July 21 and "ONE PIECE DAY" Saturday, July 22 (JST) for the official livestream!

Tokyo, Japan, July 3, 2023 – In collaboration with Shueisha Inc. and Toei Animation Co., Ltd., Bandai Namco Entertainment Inc. will hold "ONE PIECE DAY '23", an event that brings together all aspects of "ONE PIECE" including: manga, anime, movies, music, games, and merchandise for "ONE PIECE" fans all over the world. ONE PIECE DAY '23 will be held at Tokyo Big Sight on Friday, July 21 and Saturday, July 22 JST. For the first time, the main stage festivities will be streamed live to the world on YouTube with simultaneous English interpretation. Visit the YouTube page to receive alerts for when the livestream begins!

Official website: <https://onepiece-day.com/en>

On day one, "ONE PIECE FILM RED" will have a special screening, "Let's go! ONE PIECE FILM RED Special Cheer Screening" – the event encourages attendees to participate in a cheer for the movie alongside other fans. The film was first released in Japan on August 6, 2022 grossing over 31.9 billion yen worldwide. There will be a special feature talk segment with guests Kaori Nazuka (Uta) and Shimofuri Myojo (Jellyfish Pirates). While the film will not be streamed on YouTube, the special guest segment will be available for viewing.

The event continues on day two with a full schedule of events. Planned segments include a "Special Stage" event featuring the original Japanese cast from the East Blue Saga and the Land of Wano Arc, a TCG event titled "ONE PIECE Card Game Information Bureau," a feature of the One Piece mobile game titled "ONE PIECE Bounty Rush Tournament," a "Special Music Live" performance and more. A variety of new and exciting announcements will also be revealed.
